Let's start 2017 off with some laughter! It's time for the first Casual Comedy of the New Year and we're bringing in a special night of laughs just for you. Join us for comedy from Huntsville, Alabama's Scott Eason and Will Winger, along with Knoxville comedians Aaron Chasteen and Casey Clapp. Our host this month is Shane Rhyne.

Scott Eason has been featured on SiriusXM and he's a host, producer and featured comedian for one of the best comedy showcases in the southeast, Epic Comedy Hour. He's shared the stage with many nationally touring comedians and performed at comedy festivals all over the country. He even hosts a podcast with the completely original name Podcast! Podcast! Podcast!

Growing up in a small town in Alabama, Will Winger brings a sense of absurdism, esoteric humor, and self deprecation to the stage. Notable credits include working with Dusty Slay, Billy Wayne Davis, and participating in the Broken Record Festival, which set a Guinness World Record for longest comedy show ever performed.
